

Ursuline Centre Serenity Retreat

Directed by Fr. Tom Haffey

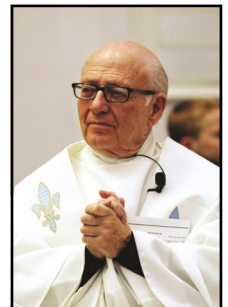

December 1 - December 3, 2023

We cordially invite you to our Serenity Retreat this year which will be a meditation and insight of the book, The Spirituality of Imperfection, and its spiritual application to all recovering people.

"The spirituality of imperfection is a concept described by authors Ernest Kurtz and Katherine Ketcham as "a spirituality of just not having all the answers" It is about embracing our imperfections and recognizing that trying to be perfect is a tragic human mistake. By owning our story and letting go of what other people think, we gain access to our worthiness and the feeling that we are enough just as we are."

Father Tom Haffey, a retired Pastor of St. Ann's Parish in Butte, Montana, and long-time facilitator of the Serenity Retreat at the Ursuline Centre, will present an engaging overview of the book, The Spirituality of Imperfection: Storytelling and the Search for Meaning through this weekend-long retreat.

Registration Friday, December 1 @ 6pm. Conference and opening AA meeting begins at 7pm.
The Retreat concludes on Sunday following lunch. Register by mail, email or by calling (406) 452-8585
